

High Performance Graphics Tools

J/CarnacPro 3.1 Release Highlights

- New JChart library with support for major chart types and complex chart visuals
- All components moved up to Java 5
- Java 6 is fully supported
- More power and flexibility for locating fonts when using PDF printing
- Added print option to keep annotation height size
- New print to scale feature added for specifying plot output size
- Print dialog look and feel enhanced for improved usability
- Source code for the print dialog is now included in the toolkit
- Added the ability to display embedded images in SVG
- SVG parsing based on Batik library
- New tutorials are included to support added print features
- Usability of tutorials improved by changing them to work with no additional arguments

For more information about J/CarnacPro and our other data visualization products, please visit our website at <http://www.int.com>.